A committee of students consisting of Messrs D. Sherrod Davis, Ira Johnston, and S. C. Noye came before the Faculty and through their Chairman, Mr. Johnston, presented a plan for "a young men's co-operative union, which should co-operate with the Faculty for their mutual advantage." Upon the withdrawal of the Committee, the Faculty voted "to request the Committee to submit its proposition to President Blackman; and also to ask Dr. Blackman to communicate with the Faculty upon the matter."

Adjourned,

Kathalie Lord,
Secretary.
